COCHISE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT
STATE OF ARIZONA

)
Plaintiff,)	MOTION TO AMEND
)	DEFENDANT'S CONDITIONS
vs.)	OF RELEASE
)
PAUL R. BAYS,)
)	(Hon. Judge Conlogue) Defendant.)

The Defendant, Paul R. Bays, through counsel, moves the Court pursuant to Rule 7.4(b) of the Ariz. R. Crim. P. to amend the condition of his release that prohibits him from drinking alcoholic beverages so that the Defendant may drink alcoholic beverages but not to excess.

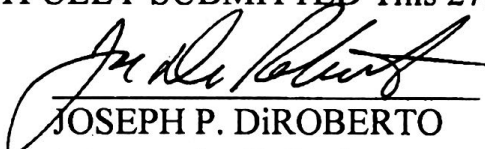

Justice of the Peace Pro Tem, Gerald Till, checked the box under "other conditions of release" that prohibited Mr. Bays from drinking alcoholic beverages at his initial appearance on March 9, 2019. There was no indication that the alleged offenses were related or caused by any consumption of alcoholic beverages by Mr. Bays.

The special prosecutor assigned to this case, Elizabeth Ortiz, has been advised of the Defendant's request to allow him to consume alcoholic beverages but not to excess and after consulting with the victim has no objection to the proposed amendment of his conditions of release.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, the Court should consider amending the Defendant's conditions of release to allow him to drink alcoholic beverages but not to excess while this case is pending.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED This 27th day of March 2019.

JOSEPH P. DiROBERTO
Attorney for Defendant
